Ayyappa Puja Significance:

Lord Ayyappa is a symbol of religious unity and communal harmony. He is the presiding deity of Sabarimala temple. He came down to earth to free his devotees from the clutches of demon Mahishi. Lord Ayyappa enshrined in the Sabarimala temple combines both these aspects of Brahman. In the Puranic lore, as usual, this fact is presented in an interesting and symbolic story form as Sri Ayyappa represents both Vishnu and Shiva in one Divinity, He is worshipped both as Protector and Deliverer. Devotees carry on their head, the holy ghee for the Lord's Abhishekam (A ceremonial bath performed in the worship of a Deity) filled in coconut in an "Irumudi" (two compartment cloth bag).

SSD Ayyappa Mandal Puja: (Ghee Abhishekam by Devotees):

The ghee symbolizes the human soul and through the abhishekam of the ghee on Lord Ayyappa the soul merges with the Supreme Being. The jeevatma is ghee and the paramatma is Lord Ayyappa.

Devotees are allowed to do Ghee Abhishekam for Lord Ayyappa during this Powerful Ayyappa Puja. Devotees can bring Ghee or temple would provide Ghee for Abhishekam.

Puja Significance:

Devotees will be allowed to do Ghee Abhishekam
Priests will do sankalpam for devotees and their families well-being.
Devotees will receive Puja Prasad [Ayyappa Picture, Flowers / Fruits]
Maha Prasad to all devotees
Shastha Preethi: Shastha having earned a name of Annadhana Prabhu, mass feasts are arranged for
